

```
import pandas as pd
import joypy
import matplotlib.pyplot as plt

df=pd.DataFrame({
"Jan":[220,240,230,215,225,245,235,228,238,232],
"Feb":[235,245,238,228,240,250,242,236,246,239],
"Mar":[250,260,255,248,258,265,259,252,262,256],
"Apr":[275,285,280,270,282,290,284,278,287,281],
"May":[295,305,300,292,298,310,302,297,307,301]
})

joypy.joyplot(df)
plt.show()

print("Highest Average Month:", df.mean().idxmax()) print("Widest Spread:", df.std().idxmax()) print("Trend: Electricity consumption increases from Jan to May.") print("Why Ridgeline? Compares distributions across months.")
```

